from the center to the sea."
The Freeman's Journal says that Parnell starts for Paris to-night in order to meet his "trusty lieutenant," William O'Brien. Mr. Parnell, according to the journal, re-fuses to believe that a friendly conference between Mr. O'Brien and himself will be barren of results until they have definitely failed to establish a modus vivendi.

At a meeting of the McCarthyite commit-tee held here, to-day, Mr. Michael Davitt denied that the priests had used intimidation tactics during the campaign, or while the voters were being polled in North Kilkenny. He described Mr. Parnell as being the descendant of a "common Cromwellian soldier," who was "now attempting to de-stroy Ireland." Mr. Healy said that the league funds in Ireland were overdrawn to the extent of £2,000, as the bulk of the money credited to the league was locked up in Paris. Mr. Healy added that a compromise arrangement between Mr. Parnell and his opponents was out of the question, and that the latter would fight to beat Mr. Parnell on every platform.

Mr. Healy also said that, had Scully won in the North Kilkenny election, he would have been unseated in Parliament, owing to bribery and corruption by his political agents, who had expended in the recent campaign £1,000 more than the legal allow-ance. Mr. Healy declared his belief that secret-service money had been spent in Kilkenny to widen the split in the Irish Parnell's Object in Going to Paris. LONDON, Dec. 24.—Persons who know Mr. Parnell well say that it is useless to entertain the idea that he is open to conciliation. His sole object in going to meet Mr. OBrien In Paris, they say, is to convert the latter through his emotional nature to Parnell's view of the situation. Mr. Parnell is said to have the most unbounded confidence that he can influence O'Brien in this degree. It is stated that the conference in Paris will begin by a personal interview between Messrs. Parnell and O'Brien, and that if their intercoure proceeds satisfactorily Mr. Justin McCarthy will be called in, and possibly other prominent Irishmen. The bitter language used by Timothy Healy in the late campaign is now recognized as a serious obstacle in the way of harmony, as Mr. Parnell is said to be deep-ly wounded by the allusions to Mrs. O'Shea.

Timothy Harrington said to-day that any ettlement which would retain the invalua-ole services of Mr. Parnell would be satisfactory to him; but he still regarded Mr. Parnell as indispensable. The conduct of the priests, he added, had been such as to bring shame upon the church, and he feared that it would tend to alarm the non-conformist masses of the English Liberal party far more than the O'Shea matter had of-fended them. One cardinal principle of the non-conformists was that the church must not be permitted to dictate the politics of the people, and Catholic priestly in-terference had always been held up as a bugaboo to prevent Englishmen from doing full justice to Irishmen. Intelligent and liberal-minded Irish leaders had taught their followers to discard, in large degree, those old notions as to priestly power, but what could they say now to the exhibition in Kilkenny? Mr. Harrington feared that home rule had received a blow, the effect of which would be felt for many

The steamship Obdam, from New York, having Messrs. O'Brien and Gill, Nationalists, on board, was sighted off Prawle Point at 1 o'clock this afternoon. It is expected that the two gentlemen named will be landed at Boulogne-Sur-Mer at about 6 o'clock to-morrow morning. Several gen-tlemen, supposed to be Irish members of Parliament, are awaiting the arrival of the Obdam at Boulogne.

Justin McCarthy's Views.

BOULOGNE, Dec. 24.—Justin McCarthy arrived here yesterday. Regarding the election in Kilkenny he says the result surpassed his expectations, its decisive character being accentuated by the fact that Mr. Scully's vote included at least from four to six hundred Conservatives making the total Parnellite strength only one-quarter of the total poli. Mr. Mc-Carthy said he believed the defeat of Mr. Scally would have the effect of disorganizing the opposition, and would induce many waverers to come out against Parnell. Mr. McCarthy declared that his idea in coming here was to inform Mr. O'Brien fully in regard to the senti-ment in Ireland. Mr. McCarthy said that he believed that in view of Mr. Parnell's declaration concerning the Kilkenny election all ideas of reconciliation between the two factions must be abandoned. Mr. O'Brien, he said, was eminently a patriot, and might have left America with the intention of effecting a reconciliation, but events since his departure would cause him to find this impossible. Even negotiations were hardly possible, he added, as no basis for a settlement of the dispute existed, Parnell having refused to accept the result of the election as a verdict, or to abandon the leadership. "The Nationalists," said Mr. McCarthy, "will never consent to Parnell's retention of the Irish leadership. Some of the Parnellites are lukewarm in their adherence, and only stick to Parnell out of a feeling of chivalry. It is likely that some will become detached in order to join Mr. O'Brien when his de- of Versailles, Ind., who was appointed

Mr. McCarthy spurned the idea that O'Brien would join the Parnell party with-out openly declaring himself. "O'Brien's patriotism," said he, "is too well known to admit a suspicion that he would join the Parnellites, even if he fails to effect a reconciliation." He thought it probable that Parnell would go to Paris to see O'Brien. but said he himself would not see Parnell, as he had nothing to do with him, his sole object in coming here being to see Mr. O'Brien and explain the position of affairs. After he had had a talk with O'Brien he would return to England and await the result of the conference between O'Brien and Parnell. The outcome of that conference, he said, would constitute a final ground of action on the part of the Nationalists. The Nationalist party, he said, would be glad if Mr. O'Brien should accept the editorship of the new daily to be pubished in Dublin. Mr. McCarthy said he knew nothing regarding the discovery of league papers in Paris.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

Boulanger Reminded by an Old Follower

that His Cause Is Dead. Paris, Dec. 24.—General Boulanger's friends recently determined to press his old claim to a seat before the Chamber of Deputies. Yesterday it was brought to vote and rejected. M. Laguerre, who was formerly an active supporter of the General, voted against the claim of his old leader. This action was not unexpected from M. Laguerre's recent utterances, and especially his speech at the Salon des Familles on Oct. 31, when he discussed Boulangism simply as an historical fact. In giving his vote M. Laguerre explained that his action was not directed against Gen Boulanger personally. He was influenced simply by motives of public policy. He was utterly amazed that General Boulanger should interpret his present opposition as a personal matter. Neither was it an indication of a continuance of a back-stairs policy against the General, and it was a serious mistake for him so to think. Boulang-ism was dead, and the sooner this fact was recognized the better for the country.

Lubruyere, who admitted having assisted Padlewski to escape. was sentenced to thirteen months' imprisonment, Mme. Duquercy, who confessed to having concealed Padlewski in her house after the murder, received a sentence of two months' imprisonment. Finally, Gregoire, who yesterday offered to surrender himself to the French consul at Palermo in order that the consul might send him back to France to testify to the fact that he had abetted in Padlewski's escape, was sentenced by default to imprisonment for eight months.

Revolutionary Movements in Peru. PANAMA, Dec. 24.-Rumors of revolutionary movements in Peru have been rife here

As matters stand in Peru it is not unlikely that similar risings will occur at short intervals, the conditions being entirely favorable. The extreme destitution prevailing throughout the republic is largely responsible for the unsettled state of affairs. Pierola was recently in

ESCAPED TO THE BAD LANDS

Two Hundred Braves of Big Foot's Hostile Band Break Away from Col. Sumner.

Four Companies of Cavalry Ordered to Recapture Them-Bloody Fight Likely to Ensue Before They Surrender Again.

PINE RIDGE AGENCY, S. D., Dec. 24.-There was mounting in hot haste here today when the news came that two hundred of the Sioux braves who surrendered to Colonel Sumner had escaped and were on their way to the Bad Lands. General Miles heard the news first and wired Gen. Brooke to send out troops to head them off. In just an hour four companies of the Ninth Cavalry, with pack animals, two Hotchkiss guns and one mortar were trotting down the road and were soon lost to sight over the hills to the north. A wagon train and escort followed to-night. Colonel Henry is probably too late to prevent the union of the warriors, and will go into camp on White river, twenty miles east of the Bad Lands. If these bucks unite with Kicking Bear's band in the latter's stronghold, there will be a bloody fight before the red-skins are induced to surrender again. The Indians who got away from Colonel Sumner were a part of Big Foot's band and included many of Sitting Bull's followers.

A squad of Indian scouts was sent after the troops to assist in the movement against the escaped hostiles. The Seventh Cavalry is under marching orders and will move before daylight. Seven friendly Indians have just returned from the Bad Lands and report that Short Bull's band refuses to come in and defies the troops.

A dispatch from Rapid City, this morning, said that Colonel Sumner rounded up 330 of Big Foot's people on the Cheyenne river, and would probably bring them into Fort Meade. Colonel Merriam is looking up the stragglers from Hump's camp, who have joined the Indians in the Bad Lands. The majority of the outlying troops are now concentrating along the Cheyenne river, and the order is daily expected to close in on the renegades. The Indians, last night, set fire to a ranch belonging to a man named McCormick. The troops were immediately sent out, but on arrival found nothing but a heap of smoking ashes. The Indians had taken everything of value, burned thousands of tons of hay and killed nine beeves. McCormick and his famiy left the ranch some days ago.

Ghost-Dancing in Indian Territory. GUTHRIE, O. T., Dec. 24.-White Cloud, Hatch-E-She and Running Deer, known as General Grant, were in this city to-day. They came for the purpose of inviting some of their friends and their legal adviser, W. P. Thompson, to meet them nine miles east of this city to participate in what is commonly known as the ghost dance. The Iowas are entertaining many Indians from neighboring tribes, namely, the Kickapoos, the Ottoes and the Sac and Fox. There are also representatives from the Cheyennes, the Arapahoes, the Creeks and two messengers from the Sioux. The white visitors will do all in their power to allay, so far as possible, the Messiah craze. It is believed that they will have very little dif-ficulty, as most of these tribes are friendly and of civilized nature. The dance will commence on Christmas day, nine miles east of Guthrie. To most people a ghost dance means a preparation for taking scalps. The Territory Indians, however, are engaging in it merely as a commemoration of the birth of Pennsylvania's Law Forbidding the Sale of Oleomargarine in the State Declared Invalid.

AN UNCONSTITUTIONAL ACT.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 24 .- In the case of the Commonwealth against George Paul, Philadelphia agent of Braun & Fitts, of Chicago. manufacturers of oleomargarine, as to whom a special verdict of agreement of council was rendered for selling oleomargarine, Judge Reed to-day delivered a decision, in which he holds that the State law forbidding the sale of oleomargarine in the packages as originally imported from another State is unconstitutional. Judge Reed. after an extended opinion, sums up his conclusions as follows:

First-The right of the State to enact police laws, at least when such laws prohibit the sale of articles which, without prohibition would be legitimate subjects of commercial interchange, is subordinate to the power of the United States to regulate commerce between the States. Second-The right to sell in the original package goods imported from another State, if the latter are merchantable and legitimate subjects of trade and commerce, is guaranteed by the United States, and though it can be regulated, it cannot be prohibited by any State.

Third—The United States has the paramount right to declare what goods are merchantable and what regulations of their sale are reason-

Fourth-By an act of Congress the United States has declared oleomargarine to be a mer-chantable article and has regulated its sale.

Fifth-The act of the Assembly of Pennsyl vania of May 21, 1885, does not regulate, but prohibits the sale of oleomargarine; therefore, such act cannot apply to the goods described in the special verdict, and the defendant is not guilty as he stands indicted. Cumulative Voting Unconstitutional. LANSING, Mich., Dec. 24.—The last Legis lature passed a law providing for cumulative voting for Representatives to the State Legislature in districts where more than one member was to be elected. The law allowed the voter to cast one vote for each of the candidates for Representative on his ticket, or, if he chose, as many votes for one candidate as there were candidates on the ticket for that office. The county boards of canvassers having refused to issue certificates of election to Representatives elected in this manner the matter was carried to the Supreme Court. The court decided to-day that the law was clearly unconstitutional. This decision makes the lower branch of the Legislature stand sixty-eight Democrats to thirty-four Republicans.

Reception to Stanley at Omaha. OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 24.-Henry M. Stanley paid his first visit to Omaha to-day since his residence in this city twenty-two years ago, when he was a frontier correspondent Before his lecture this evening the Mayor of the city delivered an address of welcome, and Governor Thayer, who presided congratulated him upon his return to Nebraska and his career as an explorer. At the close of the lecture an impromptu reception was held. Mr. Stanley met a number of old friends who were intimate with him during his former residence in Omaha.

Christmas Mail Damaged at Chicago. CHICAGO, Dec. 24.—The continued settling of the walls of the government building resulted to-day in the breaking of a waterpipe and flooding the basement with water There is a vast quantity of Christmas mail in the building, and thousands of Christmas presents, many of them costly ones, have been ruined. About five hundred sacks of second-class mail matter were soaked. As far as possible the matter will be dried out and forwarded to its destination. Some sacks of letter mail were also wetted, but it is believed that none of the letters were damaged enough to prevent their forwarding.

Expert Testimony in the Sawtelle Case. DOVER, N. H., Dec. 24.-The defense in the Sawtelle murder trial examined only a few witnesses to-day, and closed its case. Dr. Frank H. Decker, of Boston, professor of medicine at Harvard University, and medical examiner in Suffolk county, was then called by Attorney-general Barnard. He testified that he made nearly seventy-five autopsies and 275 to three hundred postmortem examinations a year. He had repeatedly examined persons who died from entering the left side and passing backwards would not necessarily be fatal. Some hemorrhage would probably show itself at the mouth or nostrils. It would be thrown out, assuming that the man had his consciousness. He said a bullet passing through the heart would cause immediate unconsciousness. He did not think there would be any bleeding from the mouth or nostrils, and that transportation of a body in small space would not necessarily produce blood on the carriage. He thought, from the testimony of others, that three hours elapsed between death and decapitation of the body.

A few more witnesses were examined and then the court adjourned until to-morrow, when the final arguments will be begun.

BAPTISTS AND EDUCATION.

Dr. Harper's Plan of Establishing Schools or Academies for the Poorer Classes.

CHICAGO, Dec. 24.—It has been known for some time that Dr. Harper, president of the new Baptist University to be located in this city, had made a rather startling educational proposition to the trustees. The nature of it was not known until today when the Rev. Dr. Goodspeed, one of the trustees, outlined it. Dr. Goodspeed says: "The plan of Dr. Harper is one for college extension. It is proposed to bring the higher education within reach of the common people, and to do so it will be the purpose of the new university to operate through a system of branch schools or academies scattered throughout the country. This plan has been generally misunderstood. Those branches will be nothing more than preparatory, with no power of conferring diplomas or degrees. All of these branches will, however, be under the supervision of the central institution of learning. Our great object will not be so much to graduate as to educate, and we hope to accomplish the greatest good by bringing the means of higher education within reach of the poorer classes. The plan, as I understand it, is not patterned after any other now in existence, but is original with Dr. Harper. But that portion of Dr. Harper's plan which impresses the trustees most favorably is that which dispenses with a regular curriculum, and gives the brighter students the privilege of completing their college course and receiving their full complement of degrees and honors in less time than the mediocre can accomplish this. Students will be given the full benefit of their own energy in this direction and may complete the work in a short or long term, as their circumstances or ambitions may direct. The plan of organization will doubtless be adopted at the next meeting of the board."

TWO FIGHTS TO A FINISH.

Hogan Knocked Out by Van Heest in Twenty-Two Rounds and Griffin Bested by Johnson.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 24.—There were two prize-fights to a finish, last night, in the rooms of the Twin City Athletic Club, of Minneapolis. The principal event was a match for a purse of $1,000, offered by the club-$800 to the winner and $200 to the loser-between Johnnie Van Heest, of Buffalo, N. Y., and Tommy Hogan, of St. Paul. Van Heest weighed 119 pounds, and Hogan 11812. Hogan had the advantage in height and reach, but was outfought at all points by Van Heest. The latter rushed his man from the beginning, but broke his hand in the second round, thus prolonging the fight. Hogan showed himself a glutton for punishment, and a good general, but could not land effectively. Van Heest finished his man, in the twenty-second round, with a hard swing on the neck. It was the best fight in this section for many a day. The other fight was for a purse of $200, offered by the club, between Charley Johnson, of St. Paul, and Jimmy Griffin, of Minneapolis, two well-known middle-weights. Griffin did most of the leading, and held the advantage until the tenth round, when Johnson floored him with an upper cut. Griffin came up groggy, and another upper cut in the twelfth round knocked him out.

The Third-Party Convention Will Be Held. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 24.—Gen. John H. Rice, who is taking a leading part in the third-party movement, was asked what he had to say about a recent message from Florida to the effect that the Cincinnati conference was declared off. "All I have to say is that those who purport to have declared it off had no authority. The call was signed by individuals from various States, members of different industrial organizations, in their individual capacity. and the Alliance, as an organization, had nothing to do with it, and only the gentlemen who signed it have any power to de-clare it off. If the time fixed should be too soon the signers of the call will confer and agree upon a date not later than April or May as the proper time.'

Code of Laws Adopted in Oklahoma. GUTHRIE, O. T., Dec. 24.-Oklahoma's first Legislature adjourned to-night. It has passed a complete code of laws, a comof the Dakota. and Illinois statutes. While drawing from the many different authorities the code is rather mixed, but still on the whole compares well with the laws of the other territories. The capital question was upper-most in the minds of the members. Every other measure was recondary, but when they found that Governor Steele would not approve of a capital removal bill they got down to work in earnest and did all they could to adopt a code of laws best suitable to the people of Oklahoma.

Lupus Patients Benefited by Koch's Lymph. NEW YORK, Dec. 24 -All the inoculated patients at the various hospitals are doing well. The young man from North Adams, Mass., afflicted with lupus of the face and hands, who was inoculated vesterday, showed marked reactionary symptoms today. His temperature rose to 105 degrees, and the epidermis is already beginning to scale off slightly. This (only two hours after injection) is regarded as almost marvelous. A similar effect has been produced in the case of the old woman who has lupus of the face. She is also "scaling" at a most satisfactory rate.

Three Tramps Lynched.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Dec. 24.-News has ust reached here that three tramps have been lynched near Huntington, Ore., on the Oregon Short line, by railroad men. Four tramps boarded a freight car near Glen's Ferry, Idaho. They were put off by the brakemen, but afterwards got on the train and overpowered a brakeman, whom they threw under the train. Both his legs were broken and he died soon after from his injuries. The report says the tramps were caught near Huntington and three of them were lynched. The fourth escaped.

Killed by Electricity. MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 24.—A negro named Will Grosvenor was killed, this afternoon, by leaning up against an iron post to which was tied a loose telephone wire. The wire was crossed with an electric wire, and the full force of the current went into the post. A mule, which the negro was driving, had touched the post with its nose and had fall-en to the ground. The negro had gotten down from the wagon to see what was the matter with the mule, and leaned against the post with the result as stated. He died almost instantly.

Reforms Urged by a Grand Jury. New York, Dec. 24.—Before the grand jury for the December term were discharged to-day the foreman handed up three important presentments. The first advocates the establishment, immediately, of a municipal lodging-house for poor people; the second calls for the compulsory application for a divorce by the courts by Jewish residents before the divorce is granted by the rabbi, and the third is in relation to persons who seek the criminal laws to aid them in the collection of debts.

$60,000 for a Swedenborgian School. CINCINNATI, Dec. 24.—The widow of the late Charles H. Allen, of Glendale, has, by a will which was probated to-day, given $60,000 in trust to Rev. Sewell, of Washington city, to be used for founding, in Glen-dale, a school in which the tenets of the Swedenborgian faith shall be taught.

the coming spring. The proposed combination of tobacco warehouses of Louisville and Cincinnati will probably prove a failure. The articles of incorporation were filed some time ago and organization effected, but it does not seem possible to carry the plan through. The deeds by which the properties of the various warehouses were conveyed to the combination have been nullified by deeds yesterday made, which reconvey these same properties to the original owners.

BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT.

Chicago Board of Trade Man Sued for $20,000 by Miss Patrice, an Actress.

CHICAGO, Dec. 24.-Miss Mary Patrice-Whitbeck, now playing in "The Midnight Call" at one of the theaters here, is the plaintiff in a breach of promise suit for $20,000, begun to-day against A. P. Blakely. a young Board of Trade man, whose office is in the Royal Insurance building, and who is said to be pretty well fixed financially. Miss Patrice is the daughter of ex-Judge Whitbeck, of Hudson, N. Y. It was during an engagement here, it is said, that Miss Patrice and Mr. Blakely first became acquainted, and for some time he was eagerly, to all appearances, pressing for a marriage. The actress claims to have a number of letters showing conclusively that Mr. Blakely promised to marry her, and for this purpose took her to Wankegan, Ill., Dec. 13. He intended, he said, to go to Wisconsin, where marriage licenses are not required, and when he discovered his mistake in supposing Waukegan to be across the State line, he brought Miss Patrice back to Chicago, saying they would soon go to Kenosha, which is certainly in Wisconsin, to have the ceremony performed. They never went there, and the defendant is charged with backing out of the arrangement, for which the court is now asked to pass upon the question of compensation for injured affections. The case promises to be a racy one.

Changes in the Jewish Ritual.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 24.—The committee appointed at the Central Rabbinical Conference at Cleveland last July, to formulate a ritual to be used by all the Jewish synagogues in the United States, met here and has agreed upon the following plan: The Sabbath and holiday prayers will be so recast as to be in accordance with the modern conception of Judaism, so that while retaining the striking and typical sentences in the Hebrew, the greater part of the service will be in English. Special forms of prayer will also be added for special occasions such as marriages, funerals, confirmations, passover celebrations, etc.
